The Early Story of Jordanelle:

Homesteds: In June 1892 -
Benjamin A Norris homesteded ground immediately to South & East of American flag Butte. He sold to Thomas Shepherd Lawry whose Park City store was burned out 19 June 1898

Richard Wellington homesteded ground South of Provo River as it crosses Highway 189 at Jordanelle

George Borlan Jordan or his father John bought this same ground from "Dick" Wellington and built a log cabin on it in late pioneer days. The cabin stood till it was burned down 1987. Geo & Em built Cafe & Dance Hall

George Borlan Jordan and his sons: ("Erv") George Ervin Jordan, and John William Jordan; and "Bills" son William Clift Jordan; and "Clift's" son Kenneth "D" Jordan have run sheep and cattle there todate.... 3-25-88.
